FOREIGN HISTORY.

RUSSIA.

THE calamities of this empire are frequent and severe. the city of Petersburgh and the country adjacent have suffer'd greatly by a hurricane and innundation which happen'd on the 2d and 3d of November past: More than 1000 people have perished, the fortifications have been almost destroy'd, and most of the houses situated near the Neva ruined; nor has the mischief been less considerable at Cronstat, Narva, Revel, and other parts of the empire, where most of the ships at anchor were beaten to pieces against each other; more than 100 ships are damaged, and will probably be detained so long, as not to be able to sail before the frost locks them up, which will be an incredible loss to their owners.

PERSIA.

A fresh competitor has appeared for the throne of this distracted empire, said to be a grandson of Schah Huffein. As it is supposed that the Turk will support his pretensions, he has been joined by several Persian chiefs.

DENMARK.

By a violent hurricane on the 10th of November, much damage has been done upon our coasts; and many pieces of wrecks are daily driven on shore.

SWEDEN.

The empress of Russia has withdrawn part of her troops from the frontiers of Finland, which shewing her dependance upon the faith of our government, gives great pleasure here.

GERMANY.

It should seem that, notwithstanding the smooth and complaisant language used between the different courts of Europe, nothing is expected but perfidy and breach of faith. The empress queen is employed in providing Hungary, and her other dominions with all the instruments and materials of war, as if some sudden attack was expected; and his Prussian majesty displays himself continually, in his reviews, in his military preparations, and in new documents to his officers relating to the discipline of his troops, which amount to 131,240 men, viz. cavalry 9,050, dragoons 10,830, hussars 12,000, and infantry 98,700 men. This number is still more extraordinary on an account of all the inhabitants of his electoral dominions taken in 1668, makes them but 230,000 men.

men able to bear arms.—In every little diſpute amongſt the German princes, more chicane and cavilling continue to be employed than one would expect from a ſet of wranglers at the bar, and every member of that great body, ſeems ſway'd more by ambition, intereſt, or revenge, than by principles of patriotiſm and motives of religion.

ITALY.

The Corſicans have abſolutely refuſed to conform to the new regulations propoſed by the Marq. de Cursay, and have protected againſt any that ſhould ſubject them again to the tyranny of the Genoeſe. They have even debated the queſtion, to what power they ſhould apply for protection; whether to Holland, G. Britain, or Spain; the French on this occaſion are greatly puzzled how to act, for a war with thoſe Iſlanders, who are ſecretly furniſhed with arms, muſt be tedious, expenſive, and without a poſſibility of advantage; yet to leave the Genoeſe at laſt, and nothing done for them, would not be to the honour of the French monarch.

Rome, Nov. 25. By the good offices of his holineſs the pope, and other friends of the Stuart family; a reconciliation has been accompliſhed between the pretender and his ſon the Cardinal of York. this laſt came hither from Bologna the 21ſt of this month, and alighted at the palace of his father, who waited for him with impatience, and received him with great demonſtrations of tenderneſs. The ſame day they received on this occaſion the compliments of the cardinals and nobleſſe. On the 23d Cardinal York went to thank the pope for the pains he had taken to procure that reconciliation.

SPAIN.

This court, by the augmentation making in her marine, ſeems to aim at the title of a maritime power. It is reckoned that we have now in the ſeveral ports of this kingdom, 28 ſhips of the line of battle and ſeveral frigates in readineſs to put to ſea, and 'tis confidently aſſerted that before the end of the winter the king's navy will conſiſt of 64 ſhips from ſixty guns and upwards, and 28 frigates.——Moſt of the ſhips of the line lately built are in a condition to be rigged.

The king has ſent orders to his governors in America, to pay to the proprietors of the Engliſh ſhips, taken ſince the ceſſation of hoſtilities, their full value.

PORTUGAL.

His moſt faithful majeſty, in imitation of Spain, has engag'd 2 Engliſh ſhip-builders, to build 18 or 20 ſhips of the line, and ſome frigates for his ſervice.

FRANCE.

Five ſhips of war ſailed from Breſt on the 20th paſt for Pondicherry, having on board 60 battering cannon, 70 field pieces, and 44 mortars, beſides a large ſtore of proviſions and ammunition, with preſents for the Indian nabobs in their intereſt; ſeveral ſmall ſquadrons are alſo ſail'd from the ſame port, their deſtination not publicly known. But the increaſe of the French marine is no ſecret; and their land forces amount to 211 750.

PHILADELPHIA, March 6.

From St. Chriſtophers there is advice, that the Honorable GEORGE THOMAS, Eſq; (our late governor) is appointed captain-general, and commander in chief, in and over all the Leeward and Caribbee Iſlands.

CHARLES TOWN, April 9.

On Tueſday laſt the Honourable CHARLES PINCKNEY, Eſq; (Chief Juſtice of this Province and a Member of His Majeſty's Council) with his Family, and many other Paſſengers embark'd for England, on board the Edinburgh, Capt. Ruſſell, and on Wedneſday the ſaid Ship ſail'd over the Bar. We cannot omit ſaying, that he was a true Father of his Country, that his Abſence is a Loſs to Carolina, and that their Sons mourn that Loſs. Rigum teneatis Amici!

Laſt Sunday a Schooner from the Southward (Miles Tedar Maſter) with Rice, in a violent Gale of Wind off this Bar, loſt her Maſts and Bowſprit; and had ſhe not met with a Sloop from Virginia, which tow'd her in, 'tis probable every Soul in her muſt have periſhed.

By a Veſſel from Providence, we have Advice, that his Excellency JOHN TINKER, Eſq; Governor and Commander in Chief of the Bahama Iſlands, was ſafe arrived at his Government.
